I'm going to go pick paru with Turi today.

In this town, which is closed off by snow during winter.

It seems it's customary to go out paru
picking on the few clear days.

I know.

Hmm...

You
have work,
Gunter,
so...

The only problem is what to do with Main.

Eh?

Do you want to wait
with me at the gate,
Main?

Chapter
8

Helping Otto

Yup.

I love him!

whoa,
I'm so high
up, Dad.

WOW-

Decided
this on her own.

I mean,
he's my teacher who gave me the slate and taught me
letters.

There's no way I wouldn't like him,
right?

I'll
have him
teach me
new letters
today!

...What are you trying to stop your five year old daughter from doing?!

He's a man with nothing but his wife on his mind, okay?

What about it?

...Um...

So, you mean Otto,

Is an earnest and wonderful man who cares dearly for his own wife, right?

...No.

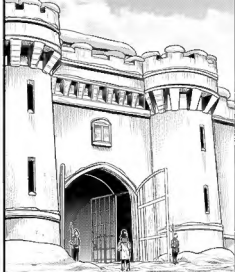

...He's so clueless!

I don't even think my dad who passed away early from "Urano's" time was this much of an obsessed parent.

I'm not going to say "I like you better, Dad" to such an annoying father.

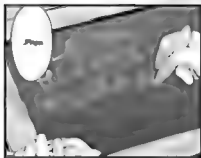

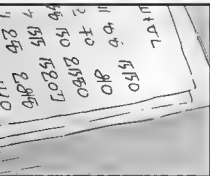

...So annoying!!

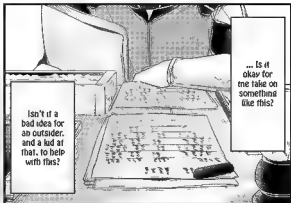

Actually, does that mean he's in such a bad situation that he would even ask a kid like me?

Isn't it a bad idea for an outsider, and a kid at that, to help with this?

... Is it okay for me to take on something like this?

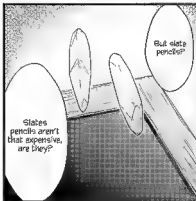

Huh?

Airright.

I'll do it if you give me more slate pencils and teach me letters.

Slate pencils aren't that expensive, are they?

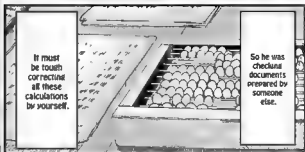

But slate pencils?

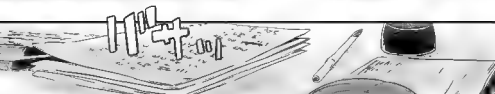

I want to learn letters, so I want you to be my teacher, Otto.

I don't really mind...

can introduce you to a trade guild if you want to become a merchant...

You might be suited to be a merchant since you're so good with calculations, Maim.

...I'll think about it.

If I want to make a lot of books and start a bookstore, it might not be a bad idea to be introduced to a trade guild.

Well, heh... prepare documents means I'll be able to touch parchment, right?

It means I can write letters with ink, right?

REALLY?

If you want to learn letters, should I drill them into you?

If I do, you'll be able to help me prepare documents next year, too.

Eh?

はあ、

yay!

You're happy about that?

Of course
that's something to be really happy about!

This is her dress for the baptism ceremony?

wow!

There,
it's done.

While she was at it, it would've been nice if she added frills or decorations.

Well, it is cute, but...

Yeah. It's cute, right?

Ah, Turu, how are you going to wear your hair?

Then are you going to wear some sort of hair ornament?

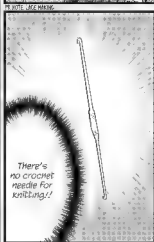

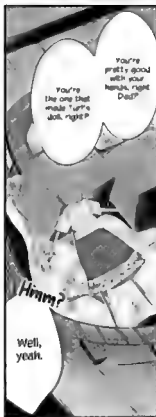

Well, no...but I was going to leave it like this.

Is there a rule to how you wear it for the baptism ceremony?

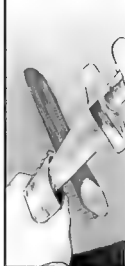

I wonder if there's some rule that it can't be too flashy because you have to wear it to the shrine.

You're
the best,
Dad!

...Wooden
is fine, right? I'll give it a try.

Can you make it thinner?

Like
this?

Yep, me too.

I'm glad.

Dad
looks like he's sort of
in a better
mood.

Let me have some thread with this color

Mom.

...What are you going to do?

I'm thinking of making a hair ornament for Turt.

I'm going to make a "lace braid"

It was my fault that he was in a bad mood.

But it's okay since he's feeling better, right?

IF SHE CAN BE EVEN CUTER, THEN WHY NOT MAKE HER?

Turt's already cute without making her any cuter. She'll be fine.

CATERING IS SUSPICIOUS!

I don't know what you're talking about, but don't be selfish.

Isn't she only using that hair ornament for the baptism ceremony?

It's a waste to use thread just for that.

I WANT TO USE THE CROCHET
NEEDLE PAD
MADE FOR ME!

I'M FINE
WITH YOUR LEFTOVER
THREAD!

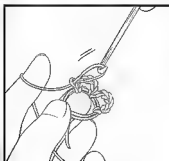

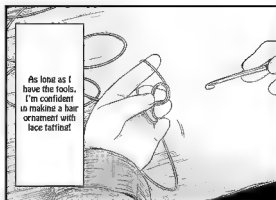

...It's rare
for Main to show interest
in needlework.
Why not give her some leftover thread?

Thanks
Mama! I love you Dad!

You're
right.

I've knit mufflers and sweaters
before.

But I've never thought to make an ornament.

...So, how do you put this in your hair?

You're
amazing,
Mom.

You're more amazing for knowing this way of knitting. Melt.

...HINT
A "TWE"!

There's no way they have something that convenient here!!

P-P-PAP!

Umm, you make a circle
with loose threads and sew each one together.

If you did that, it would look like a bouquet
right?

Then
you wrap that around a "pin"
and...
